

Colmslie Pool on its way

As you are probably aware, construction of the new $7.5m swimming pool complex at the Colmslie Recreation Reserve on Lytton Road has now begun. The complex will include a heated outdoor 50m pool and a heated indoor pool. The pool basins are largely complete with the building structures the next significant activity on site.

Artist's impression of entry

Artist's impression of outdoor pool

Throughout construction it is anticipated there will be an increase in heavy vehicle activity in the immediate vicinity and minor noise impacts during construction. Council would like to assure Hockey Queensland and patrons, works will not interfere with hockey activities.